Muller pulls plans for Mill Road

Plans detailing the layout and design of a 170-home scheme for land south of Old Mill Road in Sandbach have been withdrawn after being recommended for refusal.

The principle of development for up to 200 dwellings on the site has already been accepted as part of a previous application from Muller Property Group.

Members of Cheshire East Council's Strategic Planning Board were due to consider the reserved matters application detailing access, appearance, landscaping, layout and scale at a meeting yesterday (Wednesday) but after it was recommended for refusal the plan was withdrawn, following the receipt of new plans requiring consultation and consideration.

In the report due to go before the meeting, the planning officer stated: "The highways implications of the development are considered to be acceptable
